

MIGRATION INFORM

Migration Agent Registration Number 0214353

October 2008

GENERAL SKILLED MIGRATION

There is a range of visa options for skilled workers who want to live in Australia and who do not have an employer sponsoring them. These include options for skilled people applying as an independent migrant as well as those sponsored by a relative, or nominated by a State/Territory government.

Independent migrants have the least number of restrictions placed on them and this is the preferred option for eligible applicants who do not have an employer to sponsor them.

If you are sponsored by an eligible relative, please note that there are a number of obligations that must be met by the sponsor.

You may be eligible for a number of visa categories and each has different requirements and obligations, and as such certain applications are required to be lodged in Australia whilst others can only be submitted outside Australia.

WHY USE A MIGRATION AGENT?

Applications for a visa or migration are often rejected or significantly delayed because of:

- ineligible or mistaken visa selection
- failure to provide the right documents
- incorrectly completing forms
- misunderstand the questions
- inadequate preparation

Therefore, if you want to verify that a migration agent is registered, please visit www.themara.com.au

WORK OPPORTUNITIES

Australia is currently seeking skilled workers, especially in regional and provincial Australia.

The temporary work visa has the following key features:

- can be granted up to four (4) years
- sponsored by an Australia business
- Australian salary & work conditions
- no age restriction
- can be extended & is a pathway to permanent residence
- AUD$39100 minimum annual salary

Current work opportunities are available and updated regularly on our website.

EMPLOYER NOMINATION

The employer nomination programs allows Australian employers to sponsor employees who are foreign nationals for a permanent visa to live in Australia

The employees can be either:

- a highly skilled worker from overseas
- a highly skilled temporary resident currently in Australia.

In regional Australia where the employee cannot meet the skill, English or age requirement an application for exemption under exceptional circumstances can be considered.